SOME SUPREME COURT JUDGMENTS / ORDERS OF PUBLIC IMPORTANCE (01-10-2017 TO 31-12-2017)

- 1. On 4th October, 2017, in the case of Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Bhimsinhbhai Karmur and Ors. v. State of Gujarat and Anr. [Criminal Appeal No.1723 of 2017], a three Judge Bench summarised the broad principles on the inherent powers of the High Court under Section 482 CrPC as follows:-
- "(i) Section 482 preserves the inherent powers of the High Court to prevent an abuse of the process of any court or to secure the ends of justice. The provision does not confer new powers. It only recognises and preserves powers which inhere in the High Court;
- (ii) The invocation of the jurisdiction of the High Court to quash a First Information Report or a criminal proceeding on the ground that a settlement has been arrived at between the offender and the victim is not the same as the invocation of jurisdiction for the purpose of compounding an offence. While compounding an offence, the power of the court is governed by the provisions of Section 320 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. The power to quash under Section 482 is attracted even if the offence is non-compoundable.
- (iii) In forming an opinion whether a criminal proceeding or complaint should be quashed in exercise of its jurisdiction under Section 482, the High Court must evaluate whether the ends of justice would justify the exercise of the inherent power;
- (iv) While the inherent power of the High Court has a wide ambit and plenitude it has to be exercised; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent an abuse of the process of any court;
- (v) The decision as to whether a complaint or First Information Report should be quashed on the ground that the offender and victim have settled the dispute, revolves ultimately on the facts and circumstances of each case and no exhaustive elaboration of principles can be formulated;
- (vi) In the exercise of the power under Section 482 and while dealing with a plea that the dispute has been settled, the High Court must have due regard to the nature and gravity of the offence. Heinous and serious offences involving mental depravity or offences such as murder, rape and dacoity cannot appropriately be quashed though the victim or the family of the victim have settled the dispute. Such offences are, truly speaking, not private in nature but have a serious impact upon society. The decision to continue with the trial in such cases is founded on the overriding element of public interest in punishing persons for serious offences;

- (vii) As distinguished from serious offences, there may be criminal cases which have an overwhelming or predominant element of a civil dispute. They stand on a distinct footing in so far as the exercise of the inherent power to quash is concerned;
- (viii) Criminal cases involving offences which arise from commercial, financial, mercantile, partnership or similar transactions with an essentially civil flavour may in appropriate situations fall for quashing where parties have settled the dispute;
- (ix) In such a case, the High Court may quash the criminal proceeding if in view of the compromise between the disputants, the possibility of a conviction is remote and the continuation of a criminal proceeding would cause oppression and prejudice; and
- (x) There is yet an exception to the principle set out in propositions (viii) and (ix) above. Economic offences involving the financial and economic well-being of the state have implications which lie beyond the domain of a mere dispute between private disputants. The High Court would be justified in declining to quash where the offender is involved in an activity akin to a financial or economic fraud or misdemeanour. The consequences of the act complained of upon the financial or economic system will weigh in the balance."

Bearing in mind the above principles, it was held that in the instant case "the High Court was justified in declining to entertain the application for quashing the First Information Report in the exercise of its inherent jurisdiction.

The Bench observed that "the present case, as the allegations in the FIR would demonstrate, is not merely one involving a private dispute over a land transaction between two contesting parties. The case involves allegations of extortion, forgery and fabrication of documents, utilization of fabricated documents to effectuate transfers of title before the registering authorities and the deprivation of the complainant of his interest in land on the basis of a fabricated power of attorney. If the allegations in the FIR are construed as they stand, it is evident that they implicate serious offences having a bearing on a vital societal interest in securing the probity of titles to or interest in land. Such offences cannot be construed to be merely private or civil disputes but implicate the societal interest in prosecuting serious crime. In these circumstances, the High Court was eminently justified in declining to quash the FIR which had been registered under Sections 384, 467, 468, 471, 120-B and 506(2) of the Penal Code."

2. On 4th October, 2017, in the case of Om Prakash v. Reliance General Insurance and Anr. [Civil Appeal No. 15611 of 2017], while dealing with an appeal challenging an order of the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission, it was held that the decision of the insurer to reject a "claim has to be based on valid grounds. Rejection of the claims on purely technical grounds in a mechanical manner will result in loss of confidence of policy-holders in the insurance industry. If the reason for delay in making a claim is satisfactorily explained, such a claim cannot be rejected on the ground of delay." It was further held that "it would not be fair and reasonable to reject genuine claims which had already been verified and found to be correct by the Investigator. The condition regarding the delay shall not be a shelter to repudiate the insurance claims which have been otherwise proved to be genuine."

It was observed that the Consumer Protection Act "is a beneficial legislation that deserves liberal construction" and "this laudable object should not be forgotten while considering the claims made under the Act." It was further observed that "it is common knowledge that a person who lost his vehicle may not straightaway go to the Insurance Company to claim compensation. At first, he will make efforts to trace the vehicle. It is true that the owner has to intimate the insurer immediately after the theft of the vehicle. However, this condition should not bar settlement of genuine claims particularly when the delay in intimation or submission of documents is due to unavoidable circumstances."

In the instant case, it was held that the appellant had given cogent reasons for the delay of 8 days in informing the respondent about the incident and the Investigator had verified the theft to be genuine and the payment of Rs.7,85,000/- towards the claim was approved by the Corporate Claims Manager, which, was just and proper." Accordingly, it was held that the National Commission was not justified in rejecting the claim of the appellant without considering the explanation for the delay, and also that the claimant was entitled for a sum of Rs.50,000/- towards compensation. The respondents 1 and 2 were accordingly directed to pay a sum of Rs. 8,35,000/- to the appellant with interest @ 8% per annum from the date of filing of the claim petition till the date of payment.

3. On 4th October, 2017, in the case of S. Mohammed Ispahani v. Yogendra Chandak & Ors. [Criminal Appeal No. 1720 of 2017], the power of the Court under Section 319 of the Cr.P.C. to summon even those persons who are not named in the charge sheet to appear and face trial was examined.

It was held that "when a person is named in the FIR by the complainant, but Police, after investigation, finds no role of that particular person and files the charge sheet without implicating him, the Court is not powerless, and at the stage of summoning, if the trial court finds that a particular person should be summoned as accused, even though not named in the charge sheet, it can do so. At that stage, chance is given to the complainant also to file a protest petition urging upon the trial court to summon other persons as well who were named in the FIR but not implicated in the charge sheet. Once that stage has gone, the Court is still not powerless by virtue of Section 319 of the Cr.P.C. However, this section gets triggered when during the trial some evidence surfaces against the proposed accused."

4. On 5th October, 2017, in the case of M/s. Meters and Instruments Private Limited & Anr. v. Kanchan Mehta [Criminal Appeal No. 1731 of 2017], it was held that "where the cheque amount with interest and cost as assessed by the Court is paid by a specified date, the Court is entitled to close the proceedings" in exercise of its powers under Section 143 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 read with Section 258 Cr.P.C." It was held that the "normal rule for trial of cases under Chapter XVII of the Act is to follow the summary procedure and summons trial procedure can be followed where sentence exceeding one year may be necessary taking into account the fact that compensation under Section 357(3) Cr.P.C. with sentence of less than one year will not be adequate, having regard to the amount of cheque, conduct of the accused and other circumstances."

It was held that "in every complaint under Section 138 of the Act, it may be desirable that the complainant gives his bank account number and if possible e-mail ID of the accused. If e-mail ID is available with the Bank where the accused has an account, such Bank, on being required, should furnish such e-mail ID to the payee of the cheque. In every summons, issued to the accused, it may be indicated that if the accused deposits the specified amount, which should be assessed by the Court having regard to the cheque amount and interest/cost, by a specified date, the accused need not appear unless required and proceedings may be closed subject to any valid objection of the complainant. If the accused complies with such summons and informs the Court and the complainant by e-mail, the Court can ascertain the objection, if any, of the complainant and close the proceedings unless it becomes necessary to proceed with the case. In such a situation, the accused's presence can be required, unless the presence is otherwise exempted subject to such conditions as may be considered appropriate. The accused, who wants to contest the case, must be required to disclose specific defence for such contest. It is open to the Court to ask specific questions to the accused at that stage. In case the trial is to proceed, it will be open to the Court to explore the possibility of settlement. It will also be open to the Court to consider the provisions of plea bargaining. Subject to this, the trial can be on day to day basis and endeavour must be to conclude it within six months. The guilty must be punished at the earliest as per law and the one who obeys the law need not be held up in proceedings for long unnecessarily."

It was further held that "it will be open to the High Courts to consider and lay down category of cases where proceedings or part thereof can be conducted online by designated courts or otherwise. The High Courts may also consider issuing any further updated directions for dealing with Section 138 cases in the light of judgments of" the Supreme Court.

5. On 9th October, 2017, in the case of Santhini v. Vijaya Venketesh [Transfer Petition (Civil) No.1278 of 2016], issues pertaining to transfer of matrimonial disputes and use of video conferencing in resolving family conflicts through settlement process were examined.

Per majority, it was held that (i) in view of the scheme of the Family Courts Act, 1984 and in particular Section 11, the hearing of matrimonial disputes may have to be conducted in camera; (ii) after the settlement fails and when a joint application is filed or both the parties file their respective consent memorandum for hearing of the case through videoconferencing before the concerned Family Court, it may exercise the discretion to allow the said prayer; (iii) after the settlement fails, if the Family Court feels it appropriate having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case that videoconferencing will sub-serve the cause of justice, it may so direct; and (iv) in a transfer petition, video conferencing cannot be directed. It was further held that these directions shall apply prospectively.

6. On 11th October, 2017, in the case of Independent Thought v. Union of India and Anr. [Writ Petition (Civil) No.382 of 2013], the question for consideration was whether sexual intercourse between a man and his wife being a girl between 15 and 18 years of age is rape. It was held that "sexual intercourse with a girl below 18 years of age is rape regardless of whether she is married or not" and that Exception 2 to Section 375 of IPC "creates an unnecessary and artificial distinction between a married girl child and an unmarried girl child and has no rational nexus with any unclear objective sought to be achieved."

It was held that the said artificial distinction "is arbitrary and discriminatory and is definitely not in the best interest of the girl child. The artificial distinction is contrary to the philosophy and ethos of Article 15(3) of the Constitution as well as contrary to Article 21 of the Constitution and our commitments in international conventions. It is also contrary to the philosophy behind some statutes, the bodily integrity of the girl child and her reproductive choice."

Accordingly, it was observed that the only pragmatic option available is to read Exception 2 to Section 375 of the IPC "in a purposive manner to make it in consonance with the POCSO Act, the spirit of other pro-child legislations and the human rights of a married girl child". It was held that there is absolutely no other option but to harmonize the system of laws relating to children and require Exception 2 to Section 375 of the IPC to now "meaningfully read as: "Sexual intercourse or sexual acts by a man with his own wife, the wife not being under eighteen years of age, is not rape."

7. On 12th October, 2017, in the case of Ms. Indira Jaising v. Supreme Court of India through Secretary General and Ors. [Writ petition (C) No. 454 of 2015], a three Judge Bench held that "the exercise of the power vested in the Supreme Court and the High Courts to designate an Advocate as a Senior Advocate is circumscribed by the requirement of due satisfaction that the concerned advocate fulfills the three conditions stipulated under Section 16 of the Advocates Act, 1961, i.e., (1) ability; (2) standing at the bar; and/or (3) special knowledge or experience in law that the person seeking designation has acquired. It is not an uncontrolled, unguided, uncanalised power though in a given case its exercise may partake such a character. However, the possibility of misuse cannot be a ground for holding a provision of the Statute to be constitutionally fragile. The consequences spelt out by the intervener, namely, (1) indulgence perceived to be shown by the Courts to Senior Advocates; (2) the effect of designation on the litigant public on account of high fees charged; (3) its baneful effect on the junior members of the bar; and (4) the element of anti-competitiveness, etc. are untoward consequences occasioned by human failures. Possible consequences arising from a wrong/improper exercise of power cannot be a ground to invalidate the provisions of Section 16 of the Act."

It was held that "so long as the basis of the classification is founded on reasonable parameters which can be introduced by way of uniform guidelines/norms to be laid down by this Court", the power of designation conferred by Section 16 of the Act cannot be said to be constitutionally impermissible.

However, it was also held that "the credentials of every advocate who seeks to be designated as a Senior Advocate or whom the Full Court suo motu decides to confer the honour must be subject to an utmost strict process of scrutiny leaving no scope for any doubt or dissatisfaction in the matter." Accordingly, the Supreme Court laid down norms/guidelines to henceforth "govern the exercise of designation of Senior Advocates by the Supreme Court and all High Courts in the country."

The Bench, however, also observed that it was "not oblivious of the fact that the guidelines enumerated above may not be exhaustive of the matter and may require reconsideration by suitable additions/deletions in the light of the experience to be gained over a period of time" and this is a course of action that it has left open for consideration by the Supreme Court "at such point of time that the same becomes necessary."

8. On 12th October, 2017, in the case of Himangni Enterprises v. Kamaljeet Singh Ahluwalia [Civil Appeal No. 16850 of 2017], an application had been filed by the appellant under Section 8 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 in a pending civil suit filed by the respondent seeking appellant's eviction from the premises in question, which was located in Delhi. The application was rejected by the two Courts below. On appeal to the Supreme Court, it was held that "the Courts below were right in dismissing the appellant's application filed under Section 8 of the Act and thereby were justified in holding that the civil suit filed by the respondent was maintainable for grant of reliefs claimed in the plaint despite parties agreeing to get the disputes arising therefrom to be decided by the arbitrator."

Rejecting the contention of the appellant that the provisions of the Delhi Rent Act, 1955 were not applicable to the premises by virtue of Section 3(c) of the Act, the Supreme Court held that "the Delhi Rent Act, which deals with the cases relating to rent and eviction of the premises, is a special Act. Though it contains a provision (Section3) by virtue of it, the provisions of the Act do not apply to certain premises but that does not mean that the Arbitration Act, ipso facto, would be applicable to such premises conferring jurisdiction on the arbitrator to decide the eviction/rent disputes. In such a situation, the rights of the parties and the demised premises would be governed by the Transfer of Property Act and the civil suit would be triable by the Civil Court and not by the arbitrator. In other words, though by virtue of Section 3 of the Act, the provisions of the Act are not applicable to certain premises but no sooner the exemption is withdrawn or ceased to have its application to a particular premises, the Act becomes applicable to such premises. In this view of the matter, it cannot be contended that the provisions of the Arbitration Act would, therefore, apply to such premises." Accordingly, the Civil Court concerned which was seized of the suit was directed to proceed with the trial of the suit on merits.

- 9. On 13th October, 2017, in the case of Bimal Kishore Paliwal & Ors. v. Commissioner of Wealth Tax [Civil Appeal No.3836 of 2011], the provisions of Section 7 of the Wealth Tax Act, 1957, in regard to valuation of an asset, were examined. It was held that the proposition laid down by the Supreme Court that if two reasonable constructions of a taxing statute are possible, the construction which favours the assessee must be adopted, cannot be read to mean that where there are more than one methods of valuation of an asset of an assessee, the method under which the valuation is in favour of assessee has to be accepted.
- 10. On 24th October, 2017, in the case of International Asset Reconstruction Company of India Ltd. v. The Official Liquidator of Aldrich Pharmaceuticals Ltd. and Others [Civil Appeal No. 16962 of 2017], the question for consideration was whether Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1963, can be invoked to condone the prescribed period of 30 days, under Section 30(1) of the Recovery of Debts and Bankruptcy Act, 1993, for preferring an appeal before the Tribunal, against an order of the Recovery officer.

A three Judge Bench held that "Section 5 of the Limitation Act provides that the appeal or application, with the exception of Order XXI, CPC may be admitted after the prescribed period, if the applicant satisfies the court that he has sufficient cause for not preferring the application within time. The pre-requisite, therefore, is the pendency of a proceeding before a court." It was held that the proceedings under the Recovery of Debts and Bankruptcy Act (RDB Act) "being before a statutory Tribunal, it cannot be placed at par with proceedings before a court. The Tribunal shall therefore have no powers to condone delay, unless expressly conferred by the Statute creating it."

It was held that "the scheme of the RDB Act manifestly provides that the Legislature has provided for application of the Limitation Act to original proceedings before the Tribunal under Section 19 only. The appellate tribunal has been conferred the power to condone delay beyond 45 days under Section 20(3) of the Act. The proceedings before the Recovery officer are not before a Tribunal. Section 24 is limited in its application to proceedings before the Tribunal originating under Section 19 only. The exclusion of any provision for extension of time by the Tribunal in preferring an appeal under Section 30 of the Act makes it manifest that the legislative intent for exclusion was express. The application of Section 5 of the Limitation Act by resort to Section 29(2) of the Limitation Act, 1963 therefore does not arise. The prescribed period of 30 days under Section 30(1) of the RDB Act for preferring an appeal against the order of the Recovery officer therefore cannot be condoned by application of Section 5 of the Limitation Act."

11. On 25th October, 2017, in the case of Suresh Kumar Wadhwa v. State of M.P. & Ors. [Civil Appeal No.7665 of 2009], keeping in view the provisions of Section 74 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872 it was held that "in order to forfeit the sum deposited by the contracting party as "earnest money" or "security" for the due performance of the contract, it is necessary that the contract must contain a stipulation of forfeiture. In other words, a right to forfeit being a contractual right and penal in nature, the parties to a contract must agree to stipulate a term in the contract in that behalf. A fortiori, if there is no stipulation in the contract of forfeiture, there is no such right available to the party to forfeit the sum."

12. On 26th October, 2017, in the case of Sumaina Sharma & Ors. v. State of Jammu and Kashmir & Ors. [Civil Appeal Nos. 4594-4595 of 2017], the question in consideration was whether the private respondents, who were promotee Excise and Taxation Officers (ETOs), could be granted retrospective promotion from the dates when the vacancies occurred in the promotion quota.

It was held that "the normal rule is that a person is entitled to seniority only from the date when the said person actually joins the post. True it is, that there are exceptions and sometimes "in service" candidates can be granted promotion from a date anterior to their being regularly promoted/appointed. However, this can be done only if the rules enable retrospective appointment and on fulfilling the other requirement of the rules."

In the case at hand, it was held that "the promotees could not have been given the benefit of retrospective promotion and seniority from a date when they were not even born in the cadre and not working against the post" and "this retrospective promotion also violates the provisions of Rule 9 of the Excise Rules."

13. On 27th October, 2017, in the case of Bijender & Ors. v. State of Haryana & Anr. [Civil Appeal No.2846 of 2017], keeping in view the nature, extent, size, surrounding and location of the acquired land in question, it was held that "since the acquired land was a large chunk of land having its frontage abutting the roadside, the Belting System was rightly applied to the acquired land for determination of its fair market rate."

The Supreme Court observed that "where large pieces of land having different locations are acquired, Belting System is considered apposite for determining the market value of the lands".

14. On 31st October, 2017, in the case of National Insurance Company Limited v. Pranay Sethi and Ors. [Special Leave Petition (Civil) No. 25590 of 2014], the issue for consideration was: addition to income in regard to future prospects for determination of compensation where the deceased had a permanent job or where the deceased was self-employed / on a fixed salary without provision for annual increments.

A five Judge Constitution Bench held that "while determining the income, an addition of 50% of actual salary to the income of the deceased towards future prospects, where the deceased had a permanent job and was below the age of 40 years, should be made. The addition should be 30%, if the age of the deceased was between 40 to 50 years. In case the deceased was between the age of 50 to 60 years, the addition should be 15%. Actual salary should be read as actual salary less tax." It was further held that "in case the deceased was self-employed or on a fixed salary, an addition of 40% of the established income should be the warrant where the deceased was below the age of 40 years. An addition of 25% where the deceased was between the age of 40 to 50 years and 10% where the deceased was between the age of 50 to 60 years should be regarded as the necessary method of computation. The established income means the income minus the tax component."

On the issue pertaining to award of compensation under conventional heads, the Bench held that "reasonable figures on conventional heads, namely, loss of estate, loss of consortium and funeral expenses should be Rs. 15,000/-, Rs. 40,000/- and Rs. 15,000/- respectively" however "the aforesaid amounts should be enhanced at the rate of 10% in every three years."

On apposite multiplier and multiplicand, the Bench held that "the age of the deceased should be the basis for applying the multiplier" and the selection of multiplier shall be as indicated in the Table in Sarla Verma case read with paragraph 42 of that judgment and further that for determination of the multiplicand, the deduction for personal and living expenses, the tribunals and the courts shall be guided by paragraphs 30 to 32 of Sarla Verma case.

15. On 3rd November, 2017, in the case of Orissa Lift Irrigation Corp. Ltd. v. Rabi Sankar Patro & Ors. [Civil Appeal Nos. 17869-17870 of 2017], it was observed that "commercialization of education seriously affects creditability of standards in education, eroding power and essence of knowledge and seriously affecting excellence and merit".

The Supreme Court stated that the present case displayed "lack of effective oversight and regulatory mechanism for the Deemed to be Universities" and that the UGC had completely failed to remedy the situation" and thus, interest of justice requires that the following issues also need to be addressed: "(i) Action for failure of system, inter alia, on account of misconduct of some of the functionaries who failed to uphold the law and granted approvals contrary to the policy and the rules; (ii) Manning of the UGC; (iii) Appropriate oversight and regulatory mechanism especially for distance education degrees especially those relating to technical education by the Deemed to be Universities in future; (iv) Review of the Deemed to be Universities status granted to the Deemed to be Universities in the light of this Judgment and in the light of their working."

While observing that the above issues need immediate steps to be taken by the Union of India" and that "review of oversight and regulatory mechanism is of utmost priority for the future of technical and professional education at the hands of Deemed Universities", various directions were issued by the Supreme Court.

16. On 3rd November, 2017, in the case of Chand Devi Daga & Ors. v. Manju K. Humatani & Ors. [Criminal Appeal No. 1860 of 2017], the Supreme Court upheld a High Court judgment that allowed the legal heirs of the complainant to prosecute a Criminal Miscellaneous petition before the High Court. The original complainant had died during pendency of the Criminal Misc. Petition before the High Court which was filed since the complaint had been rejected by the Magistrate and a criminal revision challenging the said order had also been dismissed.

It was held that "even in case of trial of summons case it is not necessary or mandatory that after death of complainant the complaint is to be rejected, in exercise of the power under proviso to Section 256(1) of CrPC, the Magistrate can proceed with the complaint. More so, the present is a case where offence was alleged under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471, 120B and 201 read with 34 IPC for which procedure for trial of summons case was not applicable and there is no provision in Chapter XIX "Trial of warrant-cases by Magistrates" containing a provision that in the event of death of complainant the complaint is to be rejected. The Magistrate under Section 249 has power to discharge a case where the complainant is absent. The discharge under Section 249, however, is hedged with condition "the offence may be lawfully compounded or is not a cognizable offence". It was further held that had the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 intended "that in case of death of complainant in a warrant case the complaint is to be rejected, the provision would have indicated any such intention which is clearly absent."

17. On 10th November, 2017, in the case of Campaign for Judicial Accountability and Reforms v. Union of India and another [Writ Petition (Criminal) No.169 of 2017], a five Judge Constitution Bench of the Supreme Court held that "no Judge can take up the matter on his own, unless allocated by the Chief Justice of India, as he is the master of the roster." As far as the composition of Benches is concerned, it was held that "the principles stated in Prakash Chand case, which was stated in the context of the High Court, shall squarely apply to the Supreme Court and "there cannot be any kind of command or order directing the Chief Justice of India to constitute a particular Bench."

It was observed that this has been also the convention of this Court, and "the convention is followed because of the principles of law and because of judicial discipline and decorum. Once the Chief Justice is stated to be the master of the roster, he alone has the prerogative to constitute Benches. Needless to say, neither a two-Judge Bench nor a three-Judge Bench can allocate the matter to themselves or direct the composition for constitution of a Bench. To elaborate, there cannot be any direction to the Chief Justice of India as to who shall be sitting on the Bench or who shall take up the matter as that touches the composition of the Bench." "Such an order cannot be passed. It is not countenanced in law and not permissible."

18. On 23rd November, 2017, in the case of Nikesh Tarachand Shah v. Union of India & Anr. [Writ Petition (Criminal) No. 67 of 2017], the Supreme Court examined the constitutional validity of Section 45 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 which imposed two conditions for grant of bail where an offence punishable for a term of imprisonment of more than 3 years under Part A of the Schedule to the Act was involved. The conditions were that the Public Prosecutor must be given an opportunity to oppose any application for release on bail and the Court must be satisfied, where the Public Prosecutor opposes the application, that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the accused is not guilty of such offence, and that he is not likely to commit any offence while on bail.

It was held that Section 45(1) of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002, insofar as it imposes two further conditions for release on bail, was "unconstitutional as it violates Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India." The Supreme Court observed that "Section 45 is a drastic provision which turns on its head the presumption of innocence which is fundamental to a person accused of any offence" and that "indiscriminate application of the provisions of Section 45 will certainly violate Article 21 of the Constitution".

19. On 24th November, 2017, in the case of United India Insurance Co. Ltd. v. Sunil Kumar & Anr. [Civil Appeal No. 9694 of 2013], a three-Judge Bench held that in a proceeding under Section 163A of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, it is not open for the Insurer to raise any defence of negligence on the part of the victim.

It was held that "grant of compensation under Section 163-A of the Act on the basis of the structured formula is in the nature of a final award and the adjudication thereunder is required to be made without any requirement of any proof of negligence of the driver/owner of the vehicle(s) involved in the accident. This is made explicit by Section 163A(2). Though the aforesaid section of the Act does not specifically exclude a possible defence of the Insurer based on the negligence of the claimant as contemplated by Section 140(4), to permit such defence to be introduced by the Insurer and/or to understand the provisions of Section 163A of the Act to be contemplating any such situation would go contrary to the very legislative object behind introduction of Section 163A of the Act, namely, final compensation within a limited time frame on the basis of the structured formula to overcome situations where the claims of compensation on the basis of fault liability was taking an unduly long time. In fact, to understand Section163A of the Act to permit the Insurer to raise the defence of negligence would be to bring a proceeding under Section 163A of the Act at par with the proceeding under Section 166 of the Act which would not only be self-contradictory but also defeat the very legislative intention."

- 20. On 30th November, 2017, in the case of Dr. S. Rajaseekaran (II) v. Union of India & Ors. [Writ Petition No. 295 of 2012], keeping in mind issues of road safety and the interest of those who may be unfortunate victims of road accidents, various directions were issued by the Supreme Court, as follows:-
  - "1. Road Safety Policy: Most of the State Governments and Union Territories have already framed a Road Safety Policy. Those that have not framed such a policy namely Assam, Nagaland, Tripura, Delhi, Lakshadweep, Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Andaman and Nicobar Islands, must now formulate the Road Safety Policy by 31st January, 2018. All States and Union Territories are expected to implement the Road Safety Policy with all due earnestness and seriousness.
  - 2. State Road Safety Council: All States have already constituted a Road Safety Council in terms of Section 215 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. The Union Territories of Daman and Diu, Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Andaman and Nicobar Islands have not constituted the Road Safety Council as yet. We direct these Union Territories to constitute the State Road Safety Council on or before 31st January, 2018. The responsibility and functions of the Council will be as recommended by the Committee on Road Safety. The State Road Safety Councils should periodically review the laws and take appropriate remedial steps wherever necessary.

- 3. Lead Agency: Only a few States have established the Lead Agency as recommended by the Committee on Road Safety in its communication of 23rd December, 2014. The States and Union Territories that have not done so should establish the Lead Agency on or before 31st January, 2018 in terms of the recommendations made by the Committee on Road Safety. It may be mentioned that the Lead Agency will act as the Secretariat of the State Road Safety Council and coordinate all activities such as licensing issues including issues of driving licences, registration of vehicles, road safety and features of vehicles, along with other allied matters including emission norms and other activities as mentioned in the communication dated 23rd December, 2014.
- 4. Road Safety Fund: Some of the States have already established a Road Safety Fund. Those States and Union Territories that have not yet established the Road Safety Fund should do so not later than 31st March, 2018 and report back to the Committee on Road Safety. The corpus of the Road Safety Fund will be from the fines collected for traffic violations and the Fund will be utilized for meeting expenses relating to road safety.
- 5. Road Safety Action Plan: The purpose of a Road Safety Action Plan is to reduce the number of road accidents, as well as the fatality rate." The Ministry of Road Transport and Highways (MoRTH) of the Government of India "has already requested all the States and Union Territories to prepare a Road Safety Action Plan but it appears that the response to this has been somewhat lukewarm. The State Governments and Union Territories are therefore directed to urgently prepare a Road Safety Action Plan by 31st March, 2018 and put it into action after giving it due publicity.
- 6. District Road Safety Committee: A District Road Safety Committee is required to be set up by the State Government for every district in terms of Section 215(3) of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. As suggested by the learned Amicus and agreed to by the MoRTH, the District Road Safety Committee should be put in place by 31st January, 2018 and should be headed by the Collector of the District and should include amongst others the Superintendent of Police, Health Officers, Engineers of the Public Works Department, representatives of the National Highways Authority of India, the Road Transport Officer of the District and members of civil society from the District. The District Road Safety Committee must hold regular and periodic meetings to review road safety issues and take corrective measures.
- 7. Engineering Improvement: It appears that one of the main reasons for road accidents is the poor quality of roads, improper design, etc. The MoRTH is of the opinion that the protocol for road design and identification of black spots needs to be reviewed and enforced. Accordingly, it is directed that the MoRTH should publish a protocol for identification and rectification of black spots and take necessary steps for improving the design of roads to make them safe.

- 8. Traffic Calming Measures: It is suggested by the learned Amicus that traffic calming measures must be adopted at accident prone areas. This is agreed to by the MoRTH. However, such measures will need to be studied and then put in place. This is an on-going exercise which must be carried out by the Road Safety Committee with the assistance of the MoRTH and other stakeholders.
- 9. Road Safety Audits: There is agreement, in principle, between the learned Amicus and the MoRTH to carry out Road Safety Audits. However, there appears to be a dearth of qualified auditors in Road Safety Engineering. The MoRTH supports the idea of capacity building. It is, therefore, directed that necessary steps be taken by the Committee on Road Safety as well as by the MoRTH to work in this direction since there can be little doubt that an audit of road safety is essential to reduce the possibility of road accidents through corrective measures.
- 10. Engineering Design of New Roads: The MoRTH is of the view, and the learned Amicus is also in agreement, that the Road Safety Audit as mentioned above should include the design stage audit of new road projects of 5 kms or more, rather than being based on the cost of the project. It is ordered accordingly.
- 11. Working Group on Engineering: The Working Group on Engineering (Roads) has already submitted a Report which is available with the Road Safety Committee as well as the MoRTH. This Working Group was constituted pursuant to the decision taken in the meeting of the 12th National Road Safety Council held on 25th March, 2011. The recommendations of the Working Group should be implemented in the terms prayed for by the learned Amicus as well as those accepted by the MoRTH. These will, of course, be in the nature of interim directions since the National Road Safety Board is likely to be created as proposed in the Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Bill, 2017.
- 12. Drivers' Training: This is the subject matter of the Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Bill, 2017 and no orders are required to be passed in this regard.
- 13. Lane Driving: The MoRTH has already issued Motor Vehicles (Driving) Regulations, 2017 vide G.S.R. 634 (E) dated 23rd June, 2017. The Notification should be implemented by the State Governments and Union Territories strictly.
- 14. Road Safety Equipment: The Bureau of Police Research and Training has already prepared a Report on the subject and has submitted it to the Road Safety Committee in September, 2015. The recommendations in the Report should be implemented including acquisition of cameras and surveillance equipments in detecting traffic and identifying violators. It is also necessary to set up special patrol forces along the National Highways and State Highways for which necessary steps must be taken by the State Governments and Union Territories.

- 15. Alcohol and Road Safety: The MoRTH has already written to the States to comply with orders of this Court in this regard. The MoRTH may issue further advisories in this regard on a quarterly basis during the calendar year 2018 so as to serve as a reminder to the State Governments and Union Territories to implement the directions of this Court.
- 16. Road Safety Education: The learned Amicus as well as MoRTH are in agreement that road safety education and counselling should be incorporated in the curriculum by the State Boards by 1st April, 2018. It is directed that the State Governments may seriously consider this recommendation and include Road Safety Education and Counseling as a part of the school curriculum at the earliest.
- 17. Speed Governors: Guidelines in this regard have already been issued by the MoRTH. The MoRTH has agreed to upload the Unique Identification Number of the speed governors in the VAHAN database. This should be followed up by the MoRTH with expedition.
- 18. Emergency Medical Care: There is agreement that at least one Trauma Care Centre should be set up in every district with necessary facilities and an ambulance. The State Governments and Union Territories should take up this recommendation at the earliest since it is on record that treatment soon after a road accident is crucial for saving the life of the victim." In this context, it may also be mentioned that this Court has issued certain directions in Pt. Parmanand Katara v. Union of India (1989) 4 SCC 286 "which should be followed.
- 19. Universal Accident Helpline Number: "The MoRTH has stated that there is already a call centre number, that is, 108 provided by the National Health Mission. Due publicity must be given to this so that an ambulance can be activated at the earliest whenever necessary.
- 20. Permanent Road Safety Cell: All State Governments and Union Territories have already been requested by the MoRTH to set up Road Safety Cells. The State Governments and Union Territories should establish Permanent Road Safety Cells by 31st January, 2018.
- 21. Data Collection: The MoRTH has already taken steps for recording accident data and reports through computerised data entry. The State and Union Territories have been asked to take further action in this regard and make the data public for the information of all stakeholders. This needs to be followed up and no further orders are necessary in this regard.
- 22. GPS: The MoRTH has already notified vide G.S.R. No. 1095 (E) dated 28th November, 2016 mandating the fitment of vehicle location tracking devices in all public service vehicles subject to some exceptions. Since this has cost implications, the MoRTH may assist the State Governments and Union Territories to ensure that to the maximum extent possible and within the shortest time frame, location tracking devices must be fitted in all public service vehicles as notified.

- 23. Bus/Truck-Body Building Code: This has already been notified by the MoRTH with regard to buses vide G.S.R. No. 287 (E) dated 27th April, 2014 and with regard to trucks vide G.S.R. No. 1034(E) dated 2nd November, 2016. No further orders are necessary in this regard.
- 24. ABS, Air Bags and Headlights: The MoRTH has already notified for fitment of ABS in motor cycles vide G.S.R. No. 310(E) dated 16th March, 2016 and for four wheelers vide G.S.R. No. 120(E) dated 10th February, 2017. As far as air bags are concerned a standard AIS-145 has already been notified. As regards automated headlights, the MoRTH has notified vide G.S.R. No. 188(E) dated 22nd February, 2016 for fitment of "Automated Headlights On" in two wheelers manufactured on or after 1st April, 2017. No further orders are required in this regard except the faithful implementation of the various notifications issued by the MoRTH.
- 25. Crash Test: This too has been notified by the MoRTH and the test for all light motor vehicles is required to be conducted by the testing agency notified under Rule 126 of the Central Motor Vehicles Rules, 1989. No further orders are required in this regard except the faithful implementation of the notifications and crash standards issued by the MoRTH."

Further, it was clarified that the said directions were "in addition to and supplement the directions already given in S.Rajaseekaran v. Union of India (2014) 6 SCC 36 and further that "if there is any doubt or clarity required in implementing the directions given, the concerned State Government or Union Territory is at liberty to move the Committee on Road Safety."

21. On 15th December, 2017, in the case of Rajive Raturi v. Union of India and Others [Writ Petition (Civil) No. 243 of 2005], a petition was filed in public interest on behalf of disabled persons / differently-abled persons for proper and adequate access to public places. The petition sought providing all accessibility requirements to meet the needs of visually disabled persons in respect of safe access to roads and transport facilities.

Upon consideration, the Supreme Court observed that ten action points enumerated by the petitioner, "for providing proper access to public facilities to the persons suffering from visually disability, are now statutorily recognised" under the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016 and that it has now become "a statutory obligation on the part of the Central Government as well as the State Governments to do the needful by the target dates." Further observing that "though, Central Government has taken various measures, many State Governments have not responded at all" and that "in Justice Sunanda Bhandare Foundation case as well, this Court has given various directions from time to time", the Supreme Court gave various directions in the case at hand.
